

Jury Application

The Corvallis Art Guild, a nonprofit visual arts organization, exists to advance creative achievement, to provide educational opportunities and to exhibit fine art in our community. The Art Guild is pleased to consider submissions of artwork from new artists through our jury process. All submissions will be thoroughly reviewed by our jury. . The jury consists of a professional juror and two respected and proven artists selected by the Guild's Executive Board. They will serve a minimum of twelve months. If less than three jurors are present to jury at a meeting, an alternate will be selected by the President.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

All artists, before they submit work for jury to become an Exhibiting Member, must first an Associate Member residing in Linn or Benton County for at least three months and submit artwork to be juried.

All artists submitting art for consideration must drop off original works of art framed labeled and ready for presentation between 6:00-6:30on the day of the jury and pick it up between 9:00 and 9:30 the same evening. Corvallis Art Guild will not store juried work. We recommend that an artist submit no more that 3 works of art. The Corvallis Art Guild likes to see original art work rather than reproductions. When submitting work, please include:

- Artist resume or bio
- Artist statement
- One copy of this completed application form (retain a separate copy for your records)
- A stamped and self-addressed envelope.
